| Make a list of all the computerised and robotic devices in your home. Ask a relative or friend to do the same with their home and compare lists. Are there any differences? Present your findings using ICT. | Write a biography about a significant figure in the computing world. Check facts by cross referencing different sources. | Listen to a podcast and make a note of any key facts and information. Report your findings back to class. Would you recommend they listen next week? | Survey your friends, family and classmates to find out how much time they spend online, texting or watching TV each day. Present your findings in a chart. | Do some market research. What are the top five websites used by your family and friends? What do they like and dislike about the websites? Draw a diagram to show the results. | Learn about different codes, such as the reverse alphabet or Morse code. Experiment by sending short messages to your friends or family members. Can they understand you? |

| Have a go at creating your own PE lesson. Choose a sport of your choice, remember to include a warm up game, a main part of your lesson, where you will learn a skill and then a cool down. | Research a sporting hero of your choice. It can either be a past or present sports person. Create a PowerPoint about your sporting hero and explain why you have chosen them. | Participate in some extra physical activity this week. Why not try a run, walk, cycle, swim or another more unusual sport? Take a photograph of yourself doing it! | Have a look at all of the sports that are in the Olympic games. If you were able to add one more, what would you choose and why? | You are part of a famous sporting brand, like Nike, Adidas, Puma or Under Armour. If you could design a new piece of sporting clothing or equipment, what would it be? Have a go at drawing this! | SUMMER HOLIDAY CHALLENGE: How many of the activities are you able to complete? There will be 50 activities all in all and the whole point of the homework is to get you outside during the school holidays! |
