Dear Parents/Guardians

This year, Year 5 and 6 have the opportunity to attend the Young Voices Concert at the end of January 2019. The concert will be at the Genting Arena in Birmingham (date tbc).

For the concert they will be learning 12 songs, some old and new created especially for the concert with Mrs Ferris during their music lessons. The special guest for Young Voices 2019 is Tony Hadley.

Rehearsals

For your child to practise these songs at home please use the following link:

To access the music room please use the password: Popmedley2019

Merchandise

You will have the option to purchase a merchandise pack for your child to wear to the event in January. This contains a torch, the official Young Voices 2019 T-shirt and wristband. The cost is priced at £12 per pack. This is not compulsory but they must wear a plain white t-shirt if you don't wish to purchase the Young Voices one. Sizes are as follows:

Cost

The cost of this fantastic event has been subsidised by the school, but there will be a small cost of the bus to Birmingham and back. We will share the cost with Blakeney School, who will also be attending in the hope to keep the cost as low as possible.

Concert tickets

Parents also have the chance to attend this fantastic event at the Genting Area in January. Tickets for adults are priced at £20 if bought through the school and £25 if bought through the Box Office.

Please indicate below the sizing of the T-shirt in the merchandise pack which you would like to order for your child (this is not compulsory).

Lots more information about the concert can be found on the website:

<https://www.youngvoices.co.uk>

We will send another letter out in the next week once we know numbers to ask about tickets.

If you have any questions, please pop in and speak to us.

Kind Regards,

Mrs E Gorton, Mrs S Matthews and Mrs Ferris
